

---

IN the clog-dancing contest now taking place at the People's Empire, Bow, the results of the heats up to time of going to press are as follows:—On Monday Stokes, J. Cusick, and Will Powell won their heats, and C. Mack succeeded in making a draw with J. Nixon; on Tuesday J. M. Pike, M. Melia, R. Campbell, and R. Terrell were the winners; and on Wednesday M. Hannaway, J. Burns, T. W. Royal, J. Roberts, and J. Pike, jun., were successful, the drawn heat being won by J. Nixon. G. Simpson and F. Scott were disqualified. On Thursday Roberts, Will Powell, J. Burns, and Joe Nixon were adjudged the winners. The referee is Mr Hasberrie Howard, and the judges are Messrs Ben Ray, E. H. Doyle, Joseph Perry, Tustin, Joe May, and Bennett. The contestants are a very smart lot.