

DURHAM CHRONICLE 18/9/1936 p 8 col. 3.

CLOG-DANCING CHAMPIONSHIP.

The final of the Northumberland + Durham Clog-Dancing Championship took place on Friday night at the Palace Theatre, Durham, before a packed house. In the opinion of the 3 judges, Messrs G. Macintosh, Harry Robinson + Dick Fenell, the contest was the best + most exciting it had been their lot to appreciate. The final placings were :-

1. Joe Daly (last yrs winner), belt + gold medal. 2. Wawan Doyle, gold medal, 3. Miss P Spencer, gold medal, 4. Mr J. Astor, gold medal; and a gold-centered medal for being the best among the lovers was awarded to Miss E. Andersen. Mr H. Robinson on behalf of the competitors, moved a vote of thanks to Mr T.C. Reaves, managing director for Reaves Amusements, for providing the belt + medals + his efforts in bringing about a revival of the pastime. This was seconded by Mr G. Macintosh. The Mayor of Durham City, Councillor W.R.H. Gray, presented the prizes.