

The Challenge

In an interesting note, Mr. Warren Doyle, of 3, Chowdene Bank, Low Fell, who signs as the clog dancing champion of the North, mentions that the date fixed for the championship contest at Stanley, Race Week, is exactly 27 years from the date when he won his championship belt at the Queen's Theatre, Gateshead.

He has entered this contest, and hopes that the 22 "fit and eager" entrants will all turn up.

"The keener the competition," Mr. Doyle assures me, "the better I will like it, as I fancy my chance of retaining the title."
