

ANGUS CATTENACH

The company on the whole this year are a big happy family, all working for the good of the show and for the entertainment of the residents and visitors of Whitley Bay. Angus Cattenach, a local boy and youngest of the male members of the Super Entertainers, being in the final of the All-England Dancing Championship on Saturday night, did not appear on the bandstand. He won second prize, a gold medal, and lost the "Belt" to a man 36 years old. Angus, being only 17 years old, is to be congratulated on being the runner-up. On the Bandstand he never fails to please with his crooning through the "mike." Leon Dodd's Entertainers this year are well worth seeing as the show is full of snappy, bright, and clean entertainment. With artistes from Lancashire, Yorkshire, London, Birmingham, Edinburgh and Tyneside. Mr Dodd's 1935 company on the Links Bandstand would do well on the wireless, with such a good background as his band of Jubilee Syncopators.

Patrons wishing to secure a good seat, should book early to avoid disappointment. Bookable seats, without extra charge at 1/3, 1/-, and 9d. Phone Whitley Bay 636.
