

Mr Jack Pedder, Corless Cottages, Dolphenholme, Wyresdale, Lancs, aged 81.

A Wyresdale man, one of the few people left of this sort of age who were born and brought up in the dale.

Saw "Greensleeves" [not "The Greensleeves dance"] fairly often in his younger days. It was "done for fun mostly" at such occasions as the "Annual Ball" in a big room at Wyre House in Dolphenholme Bottom. There were relatively few in Wyresdale who could [or would?] do it, but he has seen old people doing it when he was young—always men only. He has never heard it referred to as a "Morn's dance".

The other dances done in his young days in Wyresdale were

Quadrilles	Lancers	Waltz Cotillon
Swinging - 6	Cottages	Highland Schottische
Highland Fling	Waltz	Polka
Barn Dance	ha Varovana	Polka Mazowka

He has heard of Caledonians and Sir Roger de Coverley from older people in the dale, but never seen them. He has never heard of a Square-8.

He has never heard of a dancing-teacher in Wyresdale.

There was no annual fair at Dolphenholme within his recollection.
