

JARROW.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr Hugh Robertsol.—Mr Osmond Tearle and his company are this week appearing here in The Merchant of Venice, Richard III., The Lady of Lyons, Hamlet, and Romeo and Juliet. Mr Osmond Tearle in the leading parts is admirable. He is ably supported by an excellent company.

PALACE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr Varah.—Mr Joe Hastings's Royal Koh-i-Noors company is here this week. It includes Olga and Orsa, in their laughable sketch A Terrible House. Marie Harding is a clever dancer. The Tustin Troupe of dancers are an excellent turn, and George Tustin, in his top-boot and clog dancing, is also successful. The Sisters Egerton; Henri Massey; George Montrose, buck dancer; the child actress, Bella Moody; Mr F. Griffiths, Eragraph; Mr Ernie Myers, eccentric comedian; Lillian Foue, vocalist; the Levaine Troupe, in their musical turn; and Joe Hastings, the jumper, are also in the bill.
