~~They took a change of~~

They had overalls to work in every day, & stripped them off at night

The mud gave their services free - "plenty of liquid refreshments, a barrel or two in"

Broomstick dance. The man from Newton who step-danced used to do this dance - Greenleaves. Clewly never heard of

The only other event

Sports Day, about latter end of June, as he was dancing out of doors to a brass band - same sort of dances.

Never any teachers up there

The clippings stopped between the wars.

Mr Joseph Robinson

~~From~~ His grandfather was born & brought up at Cursery - his people had an old bobbin mill, now a sawmill, then he moved to Lakeside.

He has never heard father say when old Jos started

His father won <sup>(the belt)</sup> for clog-dancing. He was black velvet, red inside, about a foot wide, and covered with little medallions, about the size of 3penny bit.

He has no recollections of <sup>his father,</sup> ~~being~~ ~~taught~~ teaching anywhere.

His father last clog-danced about age of 70.

He could dance on a <sup>round</sup> table top in the pub.

- he said he could dance on a sixpence.
