

Mr Leak.

- Still thinks that Tommy Stanton was c. 40 in 1888.
 Has no knowledge of where he went.
 Has no recollection of Tom's son Joseph R. ever ~~being~~ teaching or of R's at Bigland Hall.

Alf came to Newton between 1897 & 1904.

biting fair at Ulverston:

- Man stood at top of Queen St, & put a match in their cups. Civil stood & all. When farmer mingled with them & approached a man, the farmer gave the man a challenge - his coroll - & if the man didn't go, the farmer could summons him - & then had to pay the farmers
 expenses for wasting his day at Ulverston
 £2-10-0 for half year - when he started as Ind of 14
