Dear Tom,

A happy new year.

I'm dashing off a few business notes so please excuse the lack of real news.

Here are the latest Folkloirists. I have little enthusiasm for keeping up the subscription - it gets progressively worse - though it does give the results of the Listerford. That copy had got buried at home somehow.

I enclose a cutting which is vaguely interesting.

I have had an enquiry from one of the editors of Princeton University Press about the Scottish dance books. How is it going?

Hope you had a good Christmas with Jean &
Mr Ayers. I shall see them both when I go to London for the Dance festival next weekend.

Happy new year
Frank.
