

Southampton

9th January 1961

Dear Tom,

Four quick remarks - I'm rushed off my feet.

1. Thank you very much indeed for entertaining me. I enjoyed my couple of days with you.

2. Please get Tom Willmore to send me the title of his lecture to Maths Ass here.

3. Who was the man in Nova Scotia who taught Mrs MacKab dances? Have you any idea whereabouts in Nova Scotia
he lived?

4. Bill Gockcroft was offered
Hull this morning.

Yours

Frank.

P.S. I rang EFDSS this morning - they have no bacca-pipes.

P.P.S. Dances for Feb 18th.
3 separate parts if possible.

I I'll go and enlist (Sheborne).

II { Bacca Pipes (Brackley + Bampton)
None so Pretty (Field town)

III { Ladies Pleasure (Bledington)
Bonnets so Blue (Bucknell)

Let me have an indication of the rest of the programme release.

Mac can only come if his wife can. You fix what accommodation you can, and I'll arrange for one or two with friends in Liverpool so that all 3 of us can come.

Frank.
