

1. See The Antiquary Vol XLVIII, 1912, pp 139 - 144 for an extract from an account of the visit of the Church commissioners to Orkney and Shetland in 1700. The account is by Rev John Brand of Borrowstounness. The extract is of little interest but the original seems to be worth hunting out.
2. Murray's English Dictionary. Marrow. sb² 1. A companion, ... 1577 Grange 'Gold. Aphrod' Fiii b Forsakyng his marroll [i.e. his partner in a dance].
3. JFFDSS IV No 1 (1940) p 19.
In Westmorland ... the country dancing master would teach each pupil a special step ... exhibited during the dance at the county assembly, when all the dancers advanced down the room side by side in a row.
A.G.G.
4. JFFDSS IV No 6 (1945) p 236.
The Beggar dance - in article by Violet Alford. She quotes "All couples dance a Round, either clockwise or counter-clockwise, while one couple stands in the middle and mimes."
? Related to the Big Dance - Kigg?
5. Do you know 'A Tour in Scotland' 1769, published by John Mank, Chester 1771, dedicated by Thomas Pennant?