Dear Tom,

I have looked for your lectures on dance which you gave at Burton Manor, but have not found them. The papers which I had on my desk were something else. I think that I gave them to you at the Extraordinary general meeting. Will you please check again? I will keep an eye open for them here, but I have gone through all the places where they are likely to be, and some unlikely places too.

Lionel Bacon thinks that the orchids may be frog orchids.

Best wishes
