

[REDACTED]

Southampton

29th March 1963

Dear Tom,

Sorry for the long silence. The usual run of things which crop up in term time together with the schoolteachers course have just been too much for me. Now I'm off to Durham on the probability course. After that I shall probably just rest up and may not get to Liverpool at all. However, if I do cross the penines it will be just after Easter.

Best wishes

Frank.