

Soldier Comedians at Winter Cardens.

The Competitors as Others Saw Them.

Lightning Sketches by the "Graphic" Artist on Wednesday evening.

1. Corpl. Turner gives "The Village Pump" at the Piano.
  2. Sapper Smith in a romantic frame of mind sings "Roaming in the Gloaming."
  3. Corpl. Lindsay, "The Mournful Soul," who sings "No, No, No!"
  4. Corpl. Hanlon, a funny little fellow who waxes furious upon his deeds upon the High Seas. "I'm a Soldier Bold" is one of his savoury samples.
  5. Private Hargreaves, an exceedingly clever clog dancer.
  6. Lance-Corpl. Poxton favours us with a clever bone solo.
  7. Private Non-Competitor Robert Arthur, the concertina soloist, delights the audience with the fantasia from "Maritana"—just for pure love.
  8. "Monty" of the Gardens also gives a helping hand—or rather, two helping hands!
- Corpl. Hanlon, Lance-Corpl. Poxton and Private Hargreaves, three of the winning competitors, will appear at the popular concert to-morrow (Saturday) evening.
